E.B. Docket No. 04-381

To: Office of the Secretary

Attn.: The Honorable Richard L. Sippel
Chief Administrative Law Judge

GULF POWER'S MOTION TO EXTEND DEADLINE TO FILE
"NON-BINDING PROFFERS OF FULL POLE CAPACITY"

Gulf Power Company ("Gulf Power") moves this Court to extend the October 7, 2005 deadline to file non-binding proffers of full pole capacity by ten (10) days to October 17, 2005.

In support of this motion, Gulf Power says the following:

1. On Friday, September 23, 2005, the Presiding Judge issued an Order stating:

[T]o facilitate hearing preparation, Gulf Power should select a minimum of three (3) poles, which have CATV cable attachments and which Gulf Power can identify as being at full capacity.

The proffer(s), which will be non-binding, must include at a minimum, photographs of pole, schematic renderings of attachments, identity and copies of relevant documents, and an analysis of each described pole under APCo and the Gulf Power Order.

No. of Copies rec'd 046
List A B C D E

(September 23, 2005 Order, p. 2). The Order requires Gulf Power to file this proffer by October 7, 2005.

2. Ben Bowen and Eddie Dixon, the key Gulf Power employees involved in this case, will be out of town the week of October 3, 2005. It would be impossible to meet this deadline without the assistance of at least one of the two.

3. Complainants do not object to the requested ten (10) day extension of the October 7, 2005 deadline, and no party will be prejudiced by the requested ten (10) day extension (no party even knew about the deadline, or the requirement of such a proffer for that matter, until Friday, September 23, 2005).
